

Spanish evening with Carmen

Edita Adlerová - mezzosoprano

Miroslav Žára - spanish guitar

This program is intended for Spanish music lovers. It's full of energy and brings forth the rhythms of the renowned distinct Spanish dance – the flamenco. Edita Adlerová has devoted her entire career to the study and interpretation of this unique dance. She has produced several successful programs with this topic, such as the Carmen and Flamenco with an accomplished flamenco dancer Jana Drdáčká. The program also features arias from Carmen by Bizet and songs by other Spanish composers - Lorca, Falla, and Rodríguez. Furthermore, it showcases Sephardic Songs as well as some powerful Spanish guitar pieces. The guitar parts are performed by Miroslav Žára, a student of Štěpán Rak. Miroslav Žára has dedicated many years to classical guitar and interpretation of flamenco. This arrangement, selection of presented pieces, and distinctive rendition of both performing artists guarantees an extraordinary and original experience.
